

Conference Information

Land Acknowledgement

SATEC @ W.A. Porter acknowledges we are hosted on the land of the Anishinaabe, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Wendat. We also recognize the enduring presence of all First Nations, Metis, and Inuit Peoples.

Technology Policy

SATECMUN is a limited tech conference, which means that for all committees, technology such as mobile phones, laptops, smart watches, and other electronic devices are prohibited during moderated caucuses. For General Assemblies and Specialized Committees, delegates will be permitted to use their personal computers during unmoderated caucuses to write resolution papers, however pre-written resolutions are prohibited. For Crisis committees, the use of personal technology is disallowed for the entirety of the committee session. Any use of artificial intelligence is also STRICTLY PROHIBITED. Failure to comply with any of the above guidelines may result in disqualification from awards.

Equity Policy

SATECMUN is a zero-tolerance conference that works towards fostering a welcoming environment for all persons. All forms of bullying, discrimination, and harassment is STRICTLY PROHIBITED regarding areas including but not limited to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, appearance, and socioeconomic status. The conference acknowledges that the presentation of political, ethical, and/or social views by delegates in committee sessions does not automatically reflect personal opinions and should not be used as an excuse to discriminate against an individual. Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in disqualification from awards.

Position Paper Policy

In order to be eligible for awards, all delegates in General Assembly or Specialized Committees are required to submit position papers. Documents must be submitted digitally through the Position Paper Submission found on the SATECMUN 26 website. Physical submissions will not be accepted. Submission will be open until the morning of our conference on October 28th at 9:00 AM. If delegates are discovered to plagiarise their work or use artificial intelligence in any way to write their position papers, they will be disqualified from awards. If there are any issues or concerns regarding the submission of position paper, please contact your dais in advance.

Dress Code Policy

Delegates are recommended to wear Western business casual clothing or any other attire that is appropriate for the committee. Creativity is also encouraged for fantasy and crisis committees. If there are any questions about committee-specific attire, please contact your dais in advance.
